

Dramatic Play Training – One Day Workshop

DATE : Saturday 5th March 2011 10am - 4 pm
plus additional ½ day (reflective session date tba)

As spaces are limited early booking is recommended

TRAINER : Lynn Conway A Drama-therapist and Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist with over 20 years of experience of working with children and young people.

This is a full-day, in depth programme tailored to the needs of Art and Play Therapists who work with vulnerable children and young people. With and additional ½ day reflective session

COST: £95.00

This charges includes both the 1 day training and the additional ½ day (date to be advised)

LOCATION : The Coach House Trust , 84 Belmont Lane Glasgow G12 8EN

DESCRIPTION

The one workshop will be based on clinical work with children using story and imaginary characters. Participants will be encouraged to bring examples from their clinical work.

CONTENT

This will include the exploration of key constructs from drama therapy and psychotherapy; dramatic play; technical aspects of role play in particular; 'from image to story'.

Plus an additional ½ day event- date to be advised

This will be a follow up discussion in the form of group supervision and reflection on putting what has been learned into practice.

To book please contact:

Sarah Harwood at Creative Therapies

T: 0141 342 4444 E: sarah@creativetherapies.co.uk